STONE HOUSE GARDENS

WORKS WELL FOR

Scale meets soul. A sweeping open-air patio framed by mature gardens and a natural amphitheatre. Whether you're welcoming a hundred guests to a wedding ceremony on the lawn or setting a music experience against the Modderfontein skyline, Stone House Gardens holds the moment without effort. The stone, the open air and the landscaping tell the story for you.

EXTENDED LAWNS

Events that need room, the Extended Lawns offer something genuinely rare. Open sky, a permanent covered stage, and an uninterrupted view across the Modderfontein Nature Reserve. This is the space for music festivals, corporate escapes, large-scale productions and anything that deserves a backdrop no decor can replicate. With natural acoustics, a working stage and a lawn that opens up the horizon, your event doesn't just take place here, it belongs here.

THE GATHERING STUDIO

Styling moments that feel like somewhere you've always known. Polished hardwood floors, a working fireplace, and French doors that open onto a canopied patio overlooking the gardens. It's the right space for intimate dinners, creative workshops, brand activations and private celebrations where the details matter and the atmosphere is everything.

THE SPORTS BAR

WORKS WELL FOR

High-capacity indoor-outdoor events. With multiple tv screens, beer hall seating, a covered patio and mature trees surrounding. Built for the kind of event where everyone arrives ready to be part of something. Corporate viewing events, product launches, sports screenings, after-parties. The Sports Bar handles scale without losing its personality, and the terrace spills naturally into the wider grounds when the crowd wants air.
